ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

II. GENERAL COMMITTEE INFORMATION

SELECTION OF PROGRAM COMMITTEE CHAIR AND COORDINATORS

The Board appoints a Vice-Chair prior to the December Leadership Meeting held 15 months before the Annual Meeting. The Vice-Chair serves a two year term, the first as the Vice-Chair and the second as the Chair.

Program Committee coordinators who are Group representatives are appointed by their respective Vice Presidents to serve a three year term beginning and ending with the Annual Meeting. Vice Presidents and their respective Program Committee coordinators are to have staggered term appointments to ensure that a new vice president will inherit an experienced coordinator. A coordinator in his/her third year on the Program Committee will overlap one year with the newly elected Vice President. In the first year of a vice president's term on the Board, s/he will appoint a new coordinator who will begin in the vice president's second year on the Board.

The President-elect appoints the Program Committee coordinator who handles workshops and AACRAO office sessions.

COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES AND IMPORTANT MEETINGS

The Professional Activities Committees (PACs) are responsible for the majority of the professional activities of AACRAO. These include annual meeting sessions, special projects, publications, surveys, new member services, etc. There are a series of meetings that each Chair should have noted in a calendar and should attend.

December Leadership Conference:

New Committee Chairs meet at the annual Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C. in conjunction with the Board of Director's meeting. During this two- to three-day meeting, attendees discuss topics relating to advancement of the profession, the value of volunteerism, and leadership opportunities in AACRAO. In addition, part of the meeting will be devoted to meeting with the group Vice Presidents and Board Members, the Executive Director, and other AACRAO Office staff to discuss details for Annual Meeting sessions for the coming year and committee projects and activities, as well as the future direction of AACRAO.

The Annual Meeting

Committees sponsor sessions and workshops at the Annual Meeting. It is anticipated that committee members will be present at the Annual Meeting each year for the full meeting. However, it is not a requirement of committee membership to attend the Annual Meeting. Chairs are expected to be in attendance. The committees meet on opening day of the Annual Meeting and are encouraged to schedule other meetings as appropriate during that week. As soon as possible in conjunction with the Annual Meeting, the Vice President, in conjunction with the Chair, will appoint a Vice Chair who will often, but not always, assume the Chair of the committee the following year.

Special Committee Meetings

Committees normally conduct business during the Annual Meeting, through conference calling, and electronically throughout the year. Committee Chairs may request an additional meeting during the year when activities require. Since AACRAO funds will be used to underwrite the costs of these meetings, requests should be submitted to the appropriate Board Member. Advance approval of the meeting by the Vice President is absolutely required, as funding must be secured. This process should be initiated several months in advance of any planned meeting.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENT PROCESS

Length of Appointment

Chair and committee member appointments are for one year, but members may be reappointed for up to two additional years. To ensure both reasonable continuity and to stimulate rotation, a significant proportion of the members of each committee will include reappointed members from the preceding year. Evidence of good service is important for reappointment.

Exceptions to the three-year appointment limitation are made when situations arise involving an exceptional level of expertise, underrepresentation, or participation in an on-going project.

Any exceptions should be decided by the Board or the Executive Director through whom the appointed member reports.

Criteria for Selection

The following criteria for selection should be considered in making appointments. Their order does not suggest priority or rank.

- Must be a voting AACRAO member.
- Ability to attend the Annual Meeting during their term of appointment (recommended but not required).
- Previous service to AACRAO through Annual Meeting session or workshop presentations, committee or task force assignments, publications, etc.
- Previous service to state/regional associations.
- Proportionate number of first-time appointments to ensure new ideas and perspectives and to develop new leadership.

To preserve AACRAO as an association representing institutions of higher education, only Voting Members of the Association may ordinarily serve on its committees and taskforces. In exceptional cases where the appointment of other individuals with particular expertise on a topic is deemed to be in the best interest of the Association, the Board shall have the authority to appoint such individuals to AACRAO committees and taskforces.

A committee member or chair who, during the course of a term of service, fails to qualify as a voting member for a period of ninety (90) days due to loss of employment or some other circumstance, shall be removed from committee service.

Additionally, committee membership should consist of representation of the membership's diversity to adequately represent size and type of institution, geography, race/ethnicity, gender, and sexual preference. If the information is available, applicants denied committee seats in previous years because of lack of vacancies should receive advance consideration if they apply for a committee position.

At least one year should pass after the completion of an AACRAO-appointed position before an individual is appointed to another committee or appointed position (although concurrent membership on the Nominations and Elections Committee is permissible).

Solicitation of Applicants and Their Appointments

AACRAO members request committee appointment via the AACRAO web page. AACRAO members complete the online committee application request. It is possible to select several committees by preference on the form. Once completed, the information is forwarded to the appropriate Board Member. If the decision is made not to appoint the member to the first committee of choice, the second committee of choice is considered, and then the third. It is unusual for a member not to receive at least one of their top choices. All appointments should be done in consultation with the Board Member (usually VP) and the committee Chair.

Committee Chairs should also recruit committee members to promote service opportunities, diversity, and the opportunity for leadership development.

Committee appointments should take place prior to the Annual Meeting dates, but may occur throughout the year.

III. GUIDELINES FOR PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY COMMITTEES

SUGGESTIONS FOR COMMITTEE CHAIRS

BEFORE THE ANNUAL MEETING

- Contact all committee members, new and returning, to remind them of Annual Meeting dates and times, encourage appropriate travel schedules to allow for committee meetings, and provide information on activities to take place during the week, including an agenda for the meeting.
- Ask each committee member to bring two Annual Meeting session topics to the meeting or submit proposals in advance via the AACRAO website.
- Prepare a list of committee members and addresses to be distributed at the meeting.

SUGGESTED AGENDA FOR THE COMMITTEE MEETING AT BEGINNING OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

- Get acquainted.
- Review sessions for this year's meeting and resolve any problems.
- Ask committee members to attend a session sponsored by the committee to provide feedback before the end of the meeting.
- Review Committee Goals and Objectives and submit suggested changes to the appropriate Board Member.

- Review special projects in progress.
- Ask for new project suggestions and submit proposals for suggested projects to the Vice President.
- Discuss proposed session topics for next year (members should bring program suggestions to this meeting).
- Decide how session topic data will be entered into the information system (for example, committee members may do their own data entry, or a few volunteers can do all the work for the committee).
- Develop the committee's meeting schedule throughout the week and an agenda for each meeting.
- Identify potential articles for College & University or other AACRAO publications, based either on committee expertise or conversion of a session.
- Submit nominations for leadership to the Nominations and Elections Committee and recommend members who have provided extraordinary service for the various AACRAO awards.
- Identify potential committee members and ask them to apply for committee membership.
- Submit appropriate presenter request forms for non-members.

SUGGESTED AGENDA DURING THE ANNUAL MEETING

- Review current sessions to determine if any should be repeated. If some are to be repeated, discuss modifications.
- Review program recommendations for next year's meeting.
- Discuss possible presenters for recommended programs.
- Rank recommended programs and determine which ones to delete, if any.
- Make sure each committee member is responsible for at least one program and avoid having one person responsible for more than two. It may be necessary to assign a program to someone other than the person who suggested it.
- Review roundtable and workshop recommendations.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT MONITORING SUGGESTIONS

- A few weeks after the Annual Meeting, send a message to each of your committee members, reminding them of any tasks and offering help.
- If a committee member volunteers to do a program, try to assess if the person is a good presenter. If not, consider other presenters for a possible panel.

- Use e-mail for quick responses.
- Proofread descriptions for content and grammar. Proofread titles for clarity. Edit where necessary.

V. COMMITTEE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

GENERAL GOALS AND OBJECTIVES FOR ALL COMMITTEES

- 1) Each committee chair reviews the currently defined committee goals, objectives, and responsibilities with the committee members at the Annual Meeting to ensure that they are accurate, and that all members have a mutual understanding, as they enter the new year.
- 2) Each committee develops and maintains goal statements that will result in valuable and worthwhile contributions to AACRAO.

- 3) Any existing goal statements that are meaningless, redundant, or irrelevant should be eliminated.
- 4) Each goal should be tied to a specific, cited section of AACRAO's Strategic Plan.
- 5) Chairs submit a typed copy of the updated or revised goals and objectives to the appropriate Board member two weeks prior to the Annual Meeting.
- 6) Committees keep the AACRAO membership informed of their activities through reports to the appropriate Board members, AACRAO electronic newsletters, and articles submitted to College & University.

VI. TRANSITION OF COMMITTEE CHAIRS

- 1) Each committee Chair is responsible to the appropriate Board member for knowing the duties, responsibilities, and activities described in this handbook. An informed and responsible chair is essential for an effective and creative committee.
- 2) Chairs should organize their committees to work productively at a professional level.
- 3) The current Chair is responsible for working closely with the Vice Chair throughout the year and for scheduling a transition meeting, probably to be held early in the week of the Annual Meeting, if the Vice Chair is to assume the Chair position.
- 4) The current chair attends and chairs the committee meeting on the opening day of the Annual Meeting. During the meeting, the new chair should be introduced along with any new committee members present. The current chair continues as such throughout Annual Meeting Week, although he/she may agree upon the division of responsibilities with the incoming chair.
- 5) While the new Chair does not assume full responsibility for the committee until the last day of the Annual Meeting week, s/he may want to meet with the new and continuing members during the week to address committee responsibilities, particularly workshop/session content and participants (including data entry) for next year's Annual Meeting.
- 6) The outgoing chair should write letters of appreciation to each of the committee members who served during the past year.
