

AACRAO Involvement

There are a variety of ways to get involved with AACRAO, including Partnership and Leadership, the Exchange, a digital platform, Volunteering, engaging with AACRAO Productions and Publications, or attending Webinars.

Partnerships	Every June, at least one leader from each State & Regional is invited to attend the Leadership Meeting. At this meeting attendees receive updates about AACRAO's strategic initiatives, share new ideas, and connect with colleagues.
Exchange	The Exchange is AACRAO's online community platform. It connects AACRAO members with one another outside of in-person events to advance the pursuit of excellence in admissions, registration, and enrollment services professions.
Volunteer	AACRAO has a lot of volunteer opportunities for members: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Caucuses• Professional Activities Committees (PACs)• Programmatic Liaisons• Authorship Opportunities
Productions	Subscribe to stay up-to-date and contribute to the content. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Blogs• Podcasts• Newsletters
Publications	AACRAO has two quarterly journals, SEMQ and C&U publishes research. You can subscribe to stay up-to-date and contribute to the content.
Webinars	Webinars are presented on a variety of topics, including technology, strategic enrollment management, admissions, FERPA, and more, for further learning and professional development. There is also an archive of past webinars if you are unable to attend live